BROCKTONIA

Life Before Us; God Beside Us

"I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch where thro'
Gleams that untravelled world whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move."

ourselves .

We, the members of the Class of 1957, mourn the loss of two dear friends. One was a loyal teacher, and the other was a loving classmate. To these two we dedicate this book.

Leo J. Fitzpatrick

Students and faculty alike were saddened by the sudden death on September 9, 1956, of Mr. Leo J. Fitzpatrick, who was for twenty-nine years a member of the teaching staff of Brockton High School. Mr. Fitzpatrick, a graduate of Brockton High School, was the recipient of many honors for scholarship. All who came in contact with him respected him for his brilliant mind and loved him for his forthright honesty and kindly wit.

Mary Doris Farrell

The class of 1957 pays loving tribute to a member of our class, Mary Doris Farrell, who died on May 5, 1956. Mary will always be a gracious and friendly presence in our memories. Whenever we think of her courage and perseverance in pursuing her studies with us, we shall be inspired to reach for higher goals.

Class Play

The senior class play, "Broadway Bound," was one of the biggest events of the year. It was a comedy illustrating the lives of actors and actresses. The cast included Jack Lingley, David Kelly, Malcolm Greene, John Leary, David Levine, Judy Martin, Nancy Julio, Janet Carriuolo, Jayne Brennan, and Alice Kelleher.

Christmas Pageant

For the nineteenth Christmas season in succession the pupils, teachers, and guests of Brockton High School listened to the immortal passages from St. Luke and saw tableaux presenting kings, shepherds, angels, and The Holy Family of long ago. Sacred music both new and old was sung by the robed choirs. Palms gently swayed over the Bethlehem scene. For one hallowed hour all was forgotten but the beauty of music and the glory of the old, old story. For this inspirational production Miss Rose H. Condon was the dramatic coach, and Mr. Robert A. White was the director of singing.

Junior-Senior Prom

On January 18, 1957, the Junior-Senior Prom entitled "Surry Silhouette" was held in the auditorium at Brockton High School. The decorations, with silhouettes of surries and gaily colored parasols, portrayed life in the gay nineties. All attending were entertained by the music and comedy skits of Baron Hugo's orchestra. The evening was an outstanding success.

The third annual Faculty-Varsity basketball games, the men teachers against the boys and the women teachers against the girls, were held at the West Junior High School on Friday, March 22, 1957. The teachers employed a secret weapon, Mr. Harry Reuell, and also had Santa Claus and a hula dancer. They managed to lose both contests, however. The Teachers' Band and several faculty cheer leaders accompanied the games. Despite the levity and hilarious antics of the performers, there was a serious note to the occasion. The proceeds from this fun-packed event were used for a scholarship fund established by the Brockton Teachers' Association, which gives $300 each year to a Brockton High School graduate planning on entering a teaching career.

Faculty - Varsity Game

A delightful Parisian theme greeted the guests and members of the class of 1957 at the senior prom. Various scenes, such as the Eiffel Tower, Rue de La Paix, and Arc de Triomphe, as well as flower venders and Parisian markets, were depicted on colorful murals. To add authenticity to the evening in Paris background red checked tablecloths adorned small tables, suggesting a sidewalk cafe. This annual formal affair was very gay and colorful and was enjoyed by everyone who attended.

Organizations

Student Council

 Second row: Sandra Alden, Carol Berglund, Carol Adomaitis, Carolyn Crowe, Joan Walker, Christine Zibelli, Bettina Dorn, Patricia Cribben, Mary Wood.
 Third row: Marilyn Jones, Janet Norcross, Patricia Cerci, Janice Minsk, Katherine Puffer, Loretta Jones, Joanne Foster, Mary Hallisey, Barbara Tarasiewicz, Mary Anne Richardson, Eleanor Carriuolo.

Under the able leadership of President Robert Burke, assisted by his officers, Vice-President Rosalind White, Secretary Ann Corcoran, Treasurer Richard Arruda, and members of the Executive Committee, the Student Council had a very successful year. Advised by Miss Sylvester the Council, consisting of one representative from each home room, devoted its time to such activities as preparing and financing the Student Guide, sponsoring the Hoopsters' Hop in honor of the basketball team, and directing a prosperous drive for the Junior Red Cross. At meetings several school problems have been discussed. At the state convention of the Massachusetts Association of Student Councils held in May, 1957, President Robert Burke and Vice-President Rosalind White led a discussion on the topic, "How can the Student Council encourage a greater spirit of honor and integrity among the students?"

Executive Committee

The executive committee is sometimes found making final preparations for forthcoming dances in the auditorium and gymnasiums. When not decorating in anticipation of social functions, the committee usually is busily engaged in helping the class officers perform executive duties ranging from supervision of dues collecting to making speeches at class meetings.

Dues Collectors

First row, left to right: Marie Burke, Nancy Hayes, Patricia DiMarzio, Barbara Farrell.
Second row: Sandra McClellan, Sally Tupper, Joan McFadden, Barbara Tarasiewicz, Rosalie Piscitelli.
Third row: Margaret Creedon, Diane Rooney, Marietta Lawrence, Linda Hibel, Elaine Gardner, Mary Anne Blais, Michele Langelier.

"I want some money" could very easily have been the theme song of Treasurer Nancy Hayes and her group of efficient dues collectors. At many class meetings we were "reminded" of the need for our money. Without the persistence of Nancy and her friends we would not have our yearbooks now. Our hats are off to them.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff has attempted to compose and produce a yearbook which will be a constant reminder to the class of '57 of our wonderful years spent at Brockton High School. We extend our heartiest thanks to our advisors, Mr. Archibald Kelly, Miss Catherine A. Tuttle, and Miss Dorothy J. Goodridge, and to Miss Beatrice L. Bosworth and the commercial staff, as well as all the other teachers and pupils who assisted us. Our staff has worked diligently and dutifully for many months in order to preserve your cherished memories of high school days, and with genuine pride and great pleasure we present our accomplishment.

This year "Brocktonia" was honored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in being awarded second place for excellence among senior high schools with 1,500 to 2,500 enrollment. Another notable event is that "Brocktonia" added new features as well as increasing its publication to an issue a month. The staff was under the direction of Paul Sullivan, editor-in-chief; Barbara Hickey, news editor; William Marks, photographic editor; Alethe Flint, literary editor; and Patrick Moynihan, sports editor. Our sincere thanks go to faculty advisers Mr. Francis Hopkins and Mr. Norman Nash, and also to the hard-working literary, circulation, and advertising staffs for their loyalty throughout the year.

The Older boys' conference was held in Brockton this year, and the local club served as hosts to over five hundred boys from Rhode Island and Massachusetts. With another season closed the club looks forward with renewed enthusiasm to a new school year.

This wonderful group called "Part Timers" is chosen from the most able members of the commercial curriculum. They are divided into two separate alternating groups. When one group goes to classes, the other works in the offices of both the high school and the junior highs. During this time they not only gain experience but also perform an invaluable service to the schools. We thank these students and Miss Beatrice L. Bosworth, Faculty Adviser.

Library Monitors

Third row: Miss Converse, Jane Sulkala, Elaine Yencvian, Sally Anderson, Mary Wood.

This is the twenty-second year that the library monitors have served the pupils and teachers of Brockton High. During every period of every day and before and after school these girls perform their duties of checking overdue books, taking care of reserve books, stamping cards, collecting fines, and checking the mail. We give our thanks to these girls and especially to Judith Mandeville, President; Sandra Chase, Secretary; Lucille DeRito, Treasurer; and Miss Helen C. Converse, Faculty Adviser.

Cheerleaders

What have they got?? Pep!! And in addition the ten vivacious girls who have cheered our athletic teams to success possess the charm and poise which make them representatives of whom Brockton High can be proud. Under the able direction of Miss Doris Brooks and the leadership of Rosalie Piscitelli, Sandra Hicks, Nancy Miller, Diane Murray, Tina Dorn, Joyce Anderson, Roberta Zibel, Francis Smith, Sandra Saba, and Carolyn Reynolds, have instilled us with spirit, whether at Eldon Keith Field or at Boston Garden.  Not present when picture was taken: Linda Hibel, Tina Dorn, Barbara Tarasiewicz, Joan Sweeney.

"Our Miss Brooks," the girls' physical instructor, has once more completed a successful year in instructing the popular Girls' Sports Council, which is open to junior and senior girls. The purpose of the council is to instill in participants the ethics and principles of each sport. Girls in the sports council must complete a series of tests and put in a great many hours a year. These girls may be seen officiating at junior high school games, intramural sports, junior high school play day, and the Faculty-Varsity game. Miss Brooks has had a lasting character-building influence on all pupils with whom she has come in contact. The Class of '57 is very grateful to her for the efforts that she has expended in its behalf.

Paced by senior Co-Captains Bob Burke and Barry Walsh, the basketball team once more qualified for the Tech Tourney. Finishing the season with a strong 16-3 record, the McKernon-coached team was eliminated by Archbishop Williams in a tight game in the qualifying round. Seniors were called upon to fill the five starting posts and Bob Burke, Barry Walsh, Jack McDonough, Dick Puffer, and Ralph Duvall played well. Four additional seniors, David French, John Hartwell, Kent Davidson, and Dick Paulson, frequently filled reserve roles. Douglas DeCosta, a junior who saw much action, was elected captain for the next season.

The swimming team rewarded their new coach, Mr. Cornelius McIntire, with a fine season. The team finished with a strong 5-5 record and placed third in the State Meet. Bryan McSweeney was captain, and he captured many firsts in the breast stroke. Other seniors who figured heavily in the scoring were Herbert Rosen, Francis Colvin, and David Goldstein. James Coots was the state champion in the free style. He and Michael Blais were elected co-captains for next year. The season's record was:

Baseball

Under the coaching of Mr. Nash the baseball team has begun another successful season. Hampered by foul weather the team missed many early practice sessions and dropped the first game to Newton. However, steady improvement was shown by the winning of the next three games. Captain Roland Sergio played his third year of varsity ball and was the regular shortstop. Robert Stevens and Theodore Joseph shared the catching duties while James Savas and John Hartwell were veterans of the pitching staff. The infield was composed of Francis Burke at first base, Roger Beals and Joseph Gambrazzio at second base, Roland Sergio at shortstop, and Jack McDonough at third. The outfield was in the capable hands of sluggers George Kenyon, Richard Puffer, and Timothy Twoomey. Two juniors, Jack Moore and James Stevens, proved to be a great aid on the mound and should bolster the team greatly next year.

Golf Team

Although classified as a minor sport, the golf team has in the past few years gained considerable publicity appearing in state meets and winning the majority of their dual meets. This year was no exception as Coach Thomas Lynch led his charges to a successful season. Co-Captains elected were Vincent Kondrotas and Ted Phaneuf. Bob Thorburn was the top golfer, and he received much help from such players as Edward Raleigh, William Doherty, Richard Kimball, Tom Darte and Robert McGarry. The schedule and record follows:

 Not present when picture was taken: Stanley Berger.

Because of the graduation of many track squad members last year, Coach Howard Sandrock was faced with a rebuilding task this spring. However, Co-Captains Larry Barry and Everett Jones led the team through a successful season. Barry starred in the high-hurdles and shot put, while Jones's specialty was the 440 yard run. Edward Hayward sparked in the 100 yard dash, and Thomas Kelleher made the low hurdles his specialty. Fred Carleton, Kent Davidson, and Arthur Richardson added many points in the 440 yard run, the 880 yard run, and the pole vault, respectively. Brockton won the first two duel meets from Belmont and Quincy but will face many tough opponents, including opposition at the state and south shore track meets. The schedule follows:

Coach August Wigren was again at the helm of the tennis team which featured a majority of senior players including Captain Bryan McSweeney, a three-year veteran. Other senior members of the team included John Hartwell, Sanford Tuttle, Frank Johnson, William Anderson, Ralph Duvall, and Harold Adelman. A junior, Francis Belanger, has showed considerable promise and on several occasions aided the team greatly. The schedule and record follow:

Apr. 25	Brockton 5	Silver Lake	0	May 14	Brockton 5	Quincy	0

Under the direction of Mr. Sandrock and Mr. Saba an extensive intramural program was again conducted this year. In the fall a basketball league was organized, which played after school several afternoons a week. The winning team was composed of Mathew Gillis, Anthony Luizzi, Edward Powers, Ronald Mather, Christos Giannaros, Warner Walker, James Coots, and Robert Gentile. Following the completion of the basketball league, a foul shooting contest was held with Gerald Gorman emerging as the winner over a large field of entries.

Intramural Sports

Following competition in gymnasium classes, finals were held for the championship in broad jumping, rope climbing, and pull-ups. The respective champions were Robert Lincoln, Charles Weatherbee, and David Miller. In the spring the emphasis was on volleyball, with the team champion of each division competing for the final championship. As the fine weather approached, the scene shifted outdoors to softball. The year closed with field day practice.

Graduation Week

Class Poem

By BARBARA HICKEY

Farewell! Our schoolday tasks are done,
And new horizons now appear,
Ahead lie goals that can be won.
With high ideals, we'll persevere,
For God is ever at our side
To guide us o'er life's troubled sea.
Though we may journey far and wide,
Our faith forever strong will be.

Today we leave our friends behind,
For now alone we must proceed;
And each his separate path will wind,
Forever striving to succeed.
And if again we may not meet,
We never will forget these days
Nor school friends true. And now we say
Farewell! God guide us on our way.

Class Ode

Words by JANET CARRIUOLO

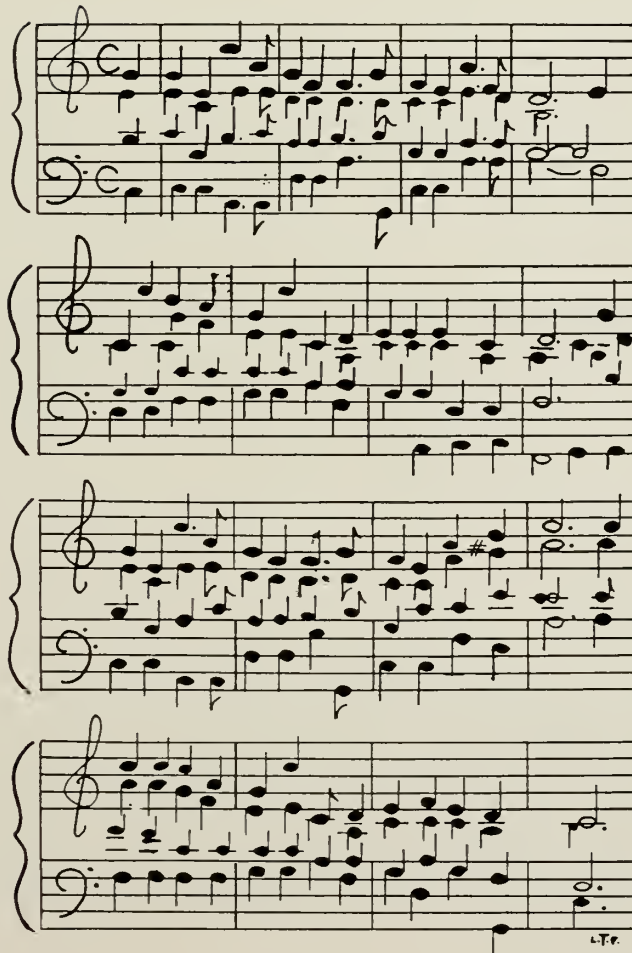

Now, as we near our separate ways,
We pause to call to mind
The knowledge gained in bygone days,
The hope to serve mankind.

Beyond us now, the future bright
Is there for us to plan.
With eager hearts, the goal in sight,
We strive to prove we can.

As God's eternal help and love
Come streaming from the sky,
We gain our strength from Him above
In everything we try.

The time has come to say farewell
To many a friendship true;
To bid God speed and wish you well
And voice a sad Adieu.
